

Large Food Donations From Businesses

Lakeview Pantry accepts large food donations from grocers, packers and producers. There are many benefits involved including:

- Reduce garbage and waste
- Capture tax benefits
- Exposure in our monthly E-News which is sent to more than 4,000 people
- Excess inventory is going towards a great cause!

We are able to make arrangements to pick up large food donations. We are also able to provide reports on your giving as often as needed.
